The Redwood Tree

My father once told me a story about an old Redwood tree –
How she stood tall and proud –
Her sprawling limbs clothed in emerald green.

With a smile,
he described how she was a mere sapling - sheltered by her family and basking
in the safety of the warm, dappled light.

But as this tree grew taller,
she found herself at the mercy of the cruel wind and the vicious rain.
Together, they tore relentlessly at her pretty boughs,
until she felt as though her heart would splinter.

After a long, thoughtful pause, my father turned to me and said:
“One day, the same may happen to you, and when that day comes – remember the Redwood tree.

Do not worry about the cold wind and the vicious rain –
do as that tree did and just keep growing”
